SCHOOL & COMMUNITY

St. John's International School provides an English-speaking education based on the values of peace, passion and purpose. The school encourages academic excellence, and stimulates social development within a culturally diverse environment. St. John's was founded in 1964 and educates students from more than 50 countries from pre-school through to grade 12. The class of 2023 will graduate 43 students. St. John's Middle-High School population includes students representing more than 35 countries.

As an all-through International Baccalaureate school, we offer a highly respected curriculum that prepares young people in an academically rigorous but thoroughly modern way, with its emphasis on inquiry, collaboration, reflection, and challenge. Coupled with our outstanding reputation for pastoral care, superb range of extracurricular activities, and stunning visual and performing arts, St John's offers an unrivaled education on a fabulous campus in Waterloo, located 10 km south of Brussels, the capital of Belgium and Europe, and headquarters to the European Union and NATO.
